Suggested Improvement / Room for Development	The activity duration was appropriate and the children were able to learn about the history of Po Leung Kuk during the activity, which was very meaningful.			The activities are rich in content, the children are engaged, and they can learn correct eating habits and toothbrushing methods. It can be continued next year.			Visiting their own community can help children feel more connected. You can increase activity time to allow children ample time to explore the relationship between light and shadow.
