Suggested Improvement / Room for Development	Parents are encouraged to take their children to explore different aspects of nature in daily life, allowing them to appreciate its beauty.	The visit helped children learn how to cherish water resources through engaging content and interactive games. It is recommended to continue this visit next year.	During the activity, children gained a preliminary understanding of the work of Legislative Council Members and the facilities in the Chamber, enriching their knowledge and experience.

Suggested Improvement / Room for Development	The interactive theatre was highly engaging, combining performances, interaction, and play to introduce children to Cantonese opera instruments and knowledge. Participation should continue if the opportunity arises next year.			Teachers can introduce exhibits that interest children and conduct related experiments with them after returning to school.			Teachers may allow children to briefly share their reflections on the visit, giving them opportunities to express their feelings about traditional Chinese art.
