Suggested Improvement / Room for Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The facilities and environment in the park are beautiful, imbued with Chinese cultural characteristics, allowing children to personally observe the architectural features of Chinese culture. Small games or "mini-tasks" such as finding distinctive buildings can be incorporated into the process, enabling children to better experience Chinese culture during their visit. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> As most of the activity takes place outdoors and in nature, it is necessary to prepare sufficient mosquito repellent items. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The activities are interesting, and there is plenty of time, making it enjoyable for the children. Since it is an indoor activity, it is relatively safe, so it is recommended to arrange experiences for children of different grades.

Suggested Improvement / Room for Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Due to the large number of visitors, it is suggested to divide into more small groups to carry out "mini tasks". As the waiting time for parking and getting on the bus is longer, teachers can prepare some snacks for the children. 			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Young children are divided into small groups to engage in activities in different areas of the park, allowing enough space and time for exploration. Since the location is close to the school, it is recommended to reserve enough time for the experience, and if numbers permit, arrange for children at all levels to visit.
